

GOALS-ORIENTED LENS : Awareness raising

	Objectives	Target user groups	Outputs
BACLIAT	Assess the potential impacts of climate change, using a checklist, under the following headings: Logistics, finance, markets, process, people, premises and management implications.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Corporate or multi-facility operations; ▪ Non-industrial SME business managers. 	Long list of potential threats and opportunities from climate change under the six generic headings: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Logistics: vulnerability of supply chain, utilities & transport infrastructure; ▪ Finance: implications for investment, insurance & stakeholder reputation; ▪ Markets: changing demand for goods & services; ▪ Process: impacts on production processes & service delivery; ▪ People: implications for workforce, customers & changing lifestyles; ▪ Premises: impacts on building design, construction, maintenance & facilities management; ▪ Management implications.
ADAPTATION WIZARD	Help users gain a basic understanding of climate change, and integrate climate risks into their decision-making.	Newcomers to the climate change issue, as well as those who are preparing to adapt.	Decision-support, rather than decision-making, as it plays a valuable awareness-raising and educational role.
ADAM	Contributes to emerging knowledge on adaptation by acting as a portal for the dissemination of the transdisciplinary results from the ADAM project.	Newcomers to the climate change issue, as well as those who are preparing to adapt.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ The catalogue is intended to showcase good practice measures that are relevant to different hazards and applicable in different contexts, hence providing stakeholders with valuable knowledge that may assist their decision-making. ▪ Lessons learnt from the project are supplied, and cover the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Making wise decisions; • Adaptation networks; • Why action is hard; • Organisational implications; • Policy implications; • And research implications.